Make A Space for Grace

In just a few weeks we will move into the season of Lent. I grew up in a church where we didn't talk much about seasons in the Christian year.

Lent is the church's season of intentional discipline and renewal. It is marked as a 40-day span from Ash Wednesday to Easter. Christians observe Lent by prayer, fasting, and meaningful service. It is often observed as a quiet season of looking inward and preparing for the celebration of Jesus' resurrection at Easter. Jesus spent 40 days in prayerful self-examination and fasting in the wilderness.

Some commit to observing a meaningful Lenten season by giving up something, such as lattes or chocolate. Others take on a spiritual discipline, such as serving in a new ministry or adding Bible reading to their daily schedules.

I would like to challenge our church family here at Port Charlotte United Methodist Church to create a space for something new in your life. I am not asking busy people to add something else to their busy-ness. I am asking us to let go of something so that we can grab hold of something else. Consider spending these 40 days by beginning each day in God's Word, a time of daily prayer, and a place to serve others for God once a week. For 40 days, make a place in your life for the Holy Spirit to blow through.

For your daily time of scripture and prayer, consider using the Pastor's Daily S-O-A-P reading and journaling that is on our church's website at www.pcumc.info. For a place to serve, assist with the Children's or Youth Ministry on Wednesdays or Sundays. Perhaps you would like to help with our new ministry partnership of feeding the community's hungry on Fridays at Trinity Charlotte Harbor UMC.

The time and the place

When we take time away from our busy daily schedules, we begin to strengthen our spiritual lives. We Christians may often put ourselves and our needs last. For the 40 days of Lent, however, let's give ourselves the time and space to ponder: How are things between God and me?

Follow these steps for creating your sacred space:

Make time

Treat your study and prayer time like any other time that you carve out in your day. Try waking up 15 minutes early each morning — if you are not an early riser, take 15 minutes after you eat breakfast or dinner.

Journal

With the instructions on the website begin to chart your Lenten journey through the scriptures.

Sunshine Ministry

Let us do good to all, especially to those who are of the household of faith. Galatians 6:10

Throughout the word of God, we are urged to do good to one another. Our church family has several members in the assisted care facilities and others who are shut-ins at home. A smiling face at the door to greet them for a while will bring cheer to them.

Sunshine Ministry does just that! We meet the 2nd Wednesday each month from 9-10am in the Conference Room. We really need additional new people to join with us. Please give your prayerful consideration to this ministry.

Letters

Dear Pastor James, Michael and Amanda,

Wow! Thank you so much for partnering with Charlotte County Habitat for Humanity for our 2nd Apostles Build! As was mentioned to me, Port Charlotte UMC would like to commit to Habitat on an annual basis. That is music to our ears and you all are such a joy to work with.

God Bless,
Shelly Shepard
Habitat for Humanity

Thank you for believing in our mission. Your contribution enables us to continue serving families in need in Charlotte County.

We appreciate your generosity. May God bless you and your family.

In Habitat Spirit,

Mike Mansfield
Chief Executive Officer

Thank you to Port Charlotte Methodist Church and Volunteers,

What a lovely thing to do for the community (Christmas Dinner). We enjoyed the good meal, the many courtesies and fellowship. Being alone would have been hard as we had recent deaths in the family. God Bless you!

Charlotte and Harold Hostetler

Children's Weekday Ministry

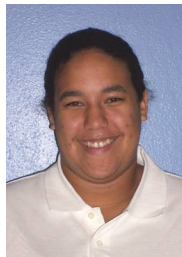

Ericka Brown

PCUMC Children's Weekday Ministry

Judy Western works as an aide two mornings a week. She also helps out whenever we are in need and is a super substitute. Judy and her husband Phil have always been big supporters of Weekday Ministries.

Ciera Lipp is our newest addition. She teaches in a VPK (4-year-olds) class. Ciera is a recent graduate, and is excited to be on staff here. She moved here with her family a few years ago from Ohio.

This month will be the last "installment" of introductions. I hope that you all have enjoyed getting to know the Weekday Ministry staff. It's a wonderful ministry and we are so blessed. These ladies love God, and it shows!

Praising God,
Ericka

Journey With Jesus—Wednesday Night Bible Study

Our Wednesday Night Pastor’s Bible Study will be taking a “Journey With Jesus” for the season of Lent. Each Wednesday evening we will look at a particular event in the life and ministry of Jesus from the perspectives of Matthew, Mark and Luke, or the Synoptic Gospels. Synoptic Gospels often recount the same stories about Jesus Christ, though sometimes with different details and lengths, but mostly following the same sequence and to a large extent, using the same words. The term synoptic is derived from a combination of the Greek words that indicate the contents of the first three Gospels have significant parallels from one to the other. We hope that you will come and use this offering to make the season of Lent more meaningful.
